State Enpineer. Hezentan Coulre, St. Lawrence. Election-Tuesday, November 6. 21

The Difficulty with France ill be seen that our telegraph despatch be speedily and amicably settled. The trifling that you matter in dispute can be easily arranged to the safisfaction of the French Government.

Our foreign letters by the Nisgara are, as usual, full and interesting. We shall endeavor to find room in this evening's Tribune for those which we are anable to publish this morning.

Profession-Practice. There were over One Handred Thousand Voters in our State last year who professed to make the preservation of our New Territories from the blight of Signery the pivot of their politi from the blight of Slavery the pivot of their political action, the paramount object of their efforts -Of this party not less than Fifteen Thousand were of the late Liberty party, and thence supposed to be very thoroughly in earnest on the subject of

There has been some discussion of late as to the relative orthodoxy of the Whige of our State and their coalesced adversaries on the Free Soil question, and a good deal of ingenuity has been beauted on the Resolutions of one or another Convention in reference to this subject. This would be to interpret the public of the convention of the fession, but it does not. We have all been acting for the last ten years on this subject-why not appeal to acte rather than professions? CHRISTO-THER MORGAN and WASHINGTON HUST, candidates on the Whig State ticket, have been, one or both of them, in Congress throughout the last twelve years. They have spoken, acted and voted on every phase of the question of Slavery JOHN A. LOTT and LEVI S. CHAT FIELD, candidates on the antagonist ticket, have been in the Legislature through a good part of those years, speaking, acting and voting on these same questions. Here we have the means of judging each party by the acts of its chosen Repreany professions. We challenge any honest Free iler to point us to the vote or set in Congress of CHRISTOPHER MORGAN OF WASHINGTON HUNT that was not thoroughly on the side of Free Soil We invite a comparison with the votes of Messrs LOTT and CHATFIELD on essentially the same questions. We believe the latter will be found steadily voting against the enactment of the Wil mot Proviso and kindred measures, while the former voted uniformly in their favor. The facts are on the country's annals—to them we appeal.

Men who meant Free Soil when you talked it will you vote for your steadfast friends or your implacable enemies? In a few days the question

ALD. HATFIELD .- There is a biography line trating a portrait of this gentleman, contributed by some admiring friend to the Sunday Atlas, which asserts that he was twice elected Assistant and secs Alderman of the Eleventh, and that most receive your answer

In the Spring of the year 180 he was again elected, and, although his right to a seal in the Soard of Aldermen, was sear and an adversary of the Whige, through their original candidate. Mr. Porter G. Sherman; and, as the codiesting parties were in the ascendancy, and possessed the power to enable them to effect their objects at will, they declared Mr. Hatheld's real vacant, and voted the competitor in." We prenounce this a tissue of infamous, inexcusable calumnies on the Board of Aldermen. Mr. Hatfield had no majority at all, but was beaten four votes in that Loco-Foco stronghold, although his party had a large majority for Mayor at the same election. Mr. Sherman obtained the seat by of Hatfield was forced by suppressing the vote of one District, for some alleged irregularity. Yet Mr. Hatfield, knowing all the facts, took the seat and held it till unseated by a vote of the Board. Was that done like a republican !

The same biography asserts that Mr. Hatheld has always been attached to the Demo tradic family, and an ardent supporter of the institution of his party and its usages."

We believe that is not true We have bee assured that this same Aid. Hatfield, who ex pacts to be chosen Sheriff by the votes of Adopt ed Citizens, was among the authors and connivers of the Native American (afterward American Republican') party of 1843-4, which voted 'a ton of bemp to O'Connell, and cut up so many inter esting antics during its brief career. We were not familiar with that interesting party, and can't assert of our own knowledge that Ald. Hatfield be longed to it; but if anybody has the documents. pro or con, at his command, we shall be grateful r a look at them. The Atlas's landation commences as follows "We respectfully, and with much pleasure, introduce our readers to the portrait and autobiography of Mr. Amos F. HATTIELD, of the Eleventh Ward of the City of New York, and a candidate for the office of Sheriff of the county; for which honorable and enviable position he was gominated on Monday avening last, by the subcopilation of the county of the free electors of New York, in general Convention at Tantanny Hall."

That word 'unbought,' so gratuitously interposed, reminds us of an anecdote that will bear telling. Let the reader tax his sagacity to discover the application :

one asserting that he had delivered so many, while the other contended that he had received a less number. The case went to trial, and the plaintiff brought up a witness who swore plump and straight to the contents of the pile as charged-The defendant, taken all aback, at length collected his faculties sufficiently to whisper to his lawyer, That fellow con't count—he is awearing utterly at random!—Look here, my good fellow, said the lawyer, 'How many are twice five!' The witness hositated, but a was just behind himsoftly whispered in his ear. 'Eleven.—" Eleven.—" Eleven.—" Eleven.—" and the now confident witness, "and nobody told me writher!"

There are journals in this State which affect o regard the Resolutions unanimously adopted by our late Whig State Convention as am biguous and equivocating on the subject of Slavery and its Extension.
